

Mill Valley School District Announces New Dean of Students Mill Valley Middle School

The Mill Valley School District is pleased to announce our new Mill Valley Middle School (MVMS) Dean of Students. Rob Celli, an experienced school administrator, is excited to join our new team at MVMS. The district conducted an extensive interview process, including panel interviews, and on site interviews, and we are confident we have identified the best candidate for this position.

Mr. Celli is a native of Marin County with over 25 years of public school experience, 22 of those in Marin County. He has teaching experience at both the elementary and middle school levels and over 11 years as an Assistant Principal at both Novato and Terra Linda High School. He is well versed in an assortment of strategies to ensure equitable access to all students.

“I can’t be more excited to be a part of the Mill Valley Middle School community. It is my goal to support students in meeting their fullest potential by providing a safe and collaborative environment that will assist them in their everyday lives.”

Mr. Celli begins his work in August, and is excited for the year to begin.
