

Room 13 Homework

October 1, 2018

Please have your child read nightly for 20-30 minutes. On Monday and Tuesday nights, the just-right library book should be read. On Wednesday and Thursday nights, students should read their just-right book bag book. In addition to the reading, kids should follow the directions listed below. Parents, please initial the shaded box to indicate that your child followed the directions.

Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
Preview your book. Make and share a prediction about the plot or characters. Read the book to an adult.	Reread your book, with expression, to an adult. Retell it over your fingers to an adult. Use "retelling hand".	Small Moments sheet. Bring your library books tomorrow.	Math-Play collect 50 cents	Bring your homework folder, book and book bag to school.

*For extra homework go to the Park School Website and click on Teacher Sites and my name, where I have several websites listed for practice and challenge work.

~Parents, please complete and return the attached conference request form.

~Volunteer opportunity—A new volunteer tab has been added to my sign-up genius (thank you Kristen Chaudhry!). If you are interested in being my "teaching buddy", sign up to come 8:30-9:30 and work with kids and/or help Sally prep projects. Also, if you are signed up for Art, the A/B (1/2 arts) are now on the schedule.

Please check to see that you are signed up on a day that your child will be having art.

~Message from our music teacher...

Hi, I am Lori Adessa, your child's music teacher. Here is a link to my music teacher website where you can find recordings of songs that your child is currently learning in music class as well as performance dates, times, and music curriculum.

Lori Adessa Teacher Music Website Link I am looking forward to a great year of music making!

Many thanks,

Lori

Have a great week!
