Professional Development Day A Success!

Teachers and Administrators took part in a Professional Development Day on January 8th.

Speaker Roni Habib shared practical strategies to promote social-emotional wellness (self-regulation techniques, embracing self-compassion, recognizing and addressing students' social-emotional needs.) The team from the California Academy of Sciences rounded out the day focusing on Next Generation Science Standards (Grades K-5) and the Middle School engaged in the Challenge Success Program.

When to Miss School

As we enter winter it's time to take a look at Nurse Nancy's guidelines (in a downloadable flyer and on the website) which answers the age old question, Should you send your student to school or keep them home?

“Ask yourself, ‘If my child were healthy, would I want them near someone with these symptoms?’” advises Robert Hoekelman, M.D., contributing editor of The Merck Manual of Medical Information—Home Edition.
