

“The Honeybee Song”

(chorus) Bzzz! Bzzz!

Bees! Bees! Bees! Bees!

Buzzin’ in bushes, buzzin’ in trees!

Buzzin’ around wherever they please.

There’s nothing so sweet as a honeybee!

They gather pollen from the flowers, you see,

Then fly back home as fast as can be.

They work and work so busily

To make sweet honey for you and me.

Oh, yes, they make sweet honey for you and me.

(chorus)

And when you bump into a bee again,

Be sure to say, “I thank you, my friend,

For making such a tasty treat.

Ooh-oo! Your honey is oh, so sweet!

Ooh-oo-oo-oo! Your honey is oh, so sweet!

Bees! Bees! Bees! Bees!

Buzzin’ in bushes, buzzin’ in trees!

Buzzin’ around wherever they please.

There’s nothing so sweet, there’s nothing so sweet,

There’s nothing so sweet as the honeybee. Bzzt!
